

THE YEAR IN GIVING

Cheeseburger in Paradise fundraiser

The eighth annual Cheeseburger in Paradise fundraiser, hosted by Victory Living Programs, brought 150 people to the Fort Lauderdale Country Club on Feb. 17. The event raised about $19,000 for Victory Living's programs, which help individuals with disabilities in Broward County live, work and play more independently. 1. Lisa Scott-Founds and David Founds. 2. Adina Harris, Nicole Edwards, Evelyn McKie and Christina Zamor.

Big Bad BBQ

Danto Builders and Florida Design & Construction Professionals hosted the fifth annual Big Bad BBQ in Fort Lauderdale on Oct. 2. More than 700 people were in attendance at the event, which raised more than $50,000 in support of 6,100 Special Olympics athletes, 23 Special Olympics sports in Broward County, and the Race for the Champions at Nova Southeastern University. 1. Debbie Danto, David Kline, Michelle Canazzaro, Craig Danto and Blake Boris. 2. Robert Borowski and Mark Sesto.

Hangin' with 5-0 summer camp

The 16th annual Hangin' with 5-0 summer camp brought together local police and at-risk youth in Miramar. Sponsored by Sunbeam Properties & Development and the Miramar Park of Commerce, the six-week camp welcomed more than 80 students, who participated free of charge. 1. Anthony Davis and Officer Juan Ulfe. 2. Miramar Police Athletic League Program Director Ann Lee, Miramar Police Athletic League Executive Director Scott Hadley, Sunbeam leasing associate Lauren Pace and Sgt. Julie Black.

